

Please do not allow bluegrass to be genetically modified. Round up is not as safe as is claimed and is overused already. Many times modified organisms do not stay in place. They end up in unwanted places. Look at foreign plants and some of the problems that have occurred because they do not stay put. It is our duty to protect this earth. Not change plants so that we may use more toxic chemicals

Lois Tolley